Allen- See I guess I'm signing in the right place. Drivers ED was boring as hell. But at least now
I get my permit. That is if I pass the test. I'm sure I'll see you at some parties or something this summer. Its not that big of place. Well, enjoy summer, and don't lose
too many brain cells.

Love, Marla

Allen,

It was rather fun being in the same science class with you, Anyways I hope you had a good year at Paly. Maybe next year we'll have more than one class together.

Have a radical summer.

Keep in touch over the summer. 424-1022

Chantae Young

Allen-

Science was okay.
not the best. Maybe next year we'll have better classes together.
Have a good summer -
I can guess what you'll be doing!! :)
Have fun.

Victory For The Class Of '84

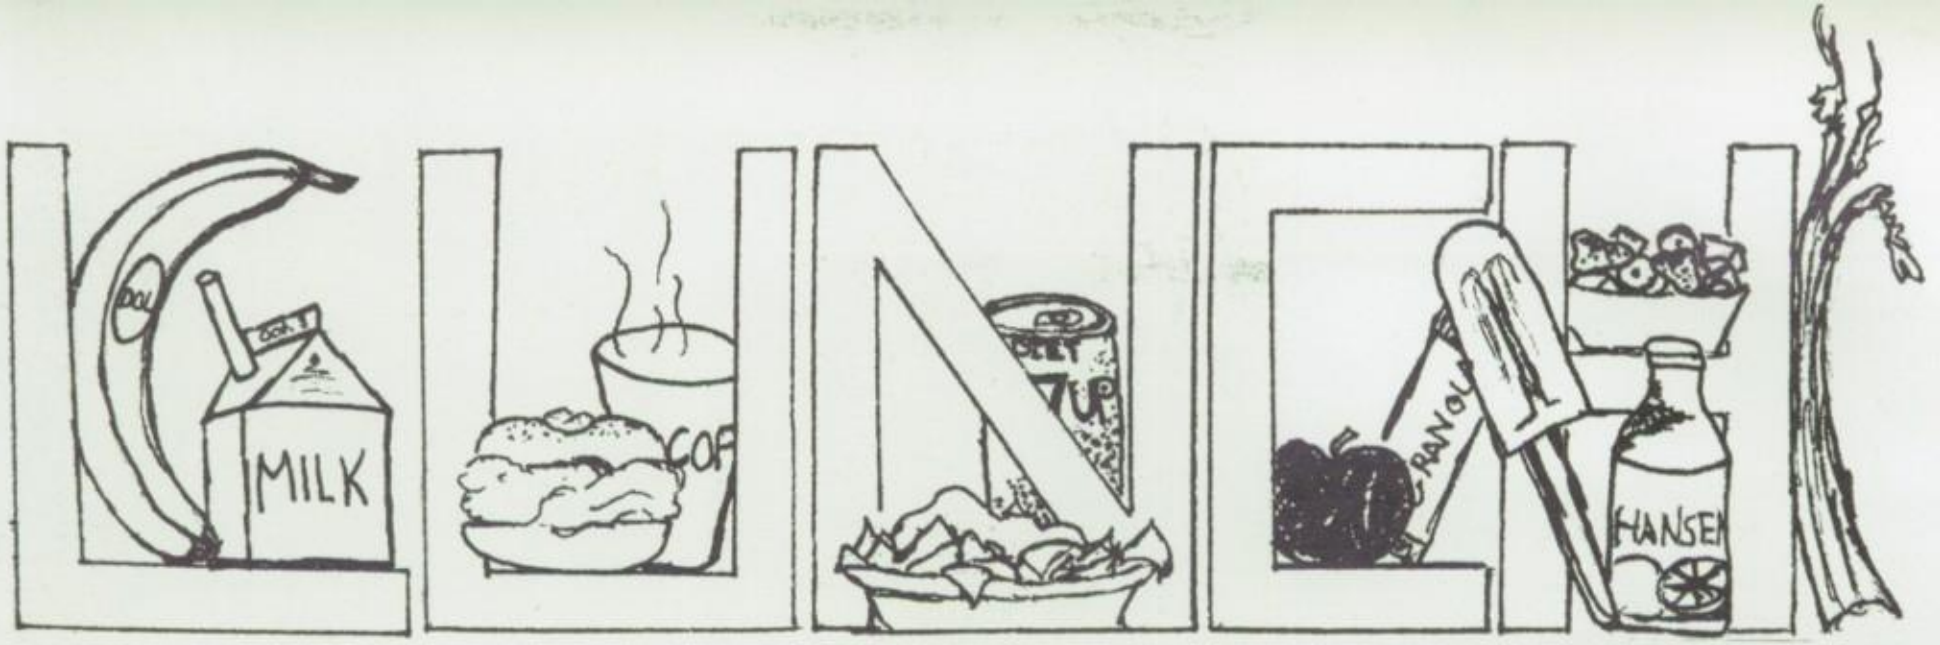

Once again the Class of '84 came out on top in the Spirit Week competitions which ended with the Homecoming Game. The Seniors pulled to the top with 880 points. The Juniors rose to second place with 753 points. The Freshmen accomplished the unusual feat of placing third with 623 points, and the Sophomores took fourth place ending with 550 points. The Class of '84 defeated all others in the float competition with their smoke-spewing dragon. The yellow submarine took second place for the Class of '85. The Class of '87 came in third with their grinning orange sun, and the fire engine placed fourth for the Class of '86. Bobby Kimsey and Sarah Getzoff became the Senior Homecoming King and Queen. Their court consisted of Paul Stein and Sheila French, and Steve Fry and Sarah Smith. The Junior prince and princess were Brad Branson and Cathy Grant. Steve Heer and Libby Mcaul took the titles of Sophomore prince and princess, and the Freshman royalty were Cory Brand and Deby Reese.

Rah-Rahs

The spirit at Paly this year was outstanding. Not only should the Spirit Leaders be commended for their positive effort to make the year exciting and fun, but also the student body should be applauded for being full of enthusiasm and school spirit. We had many entertaining rallies and a highly succesful Homecoming Week in which both staff and students participated enthusiastically. We would also like to thank Gayle Joslin for her guidance which put the Rally Squad back into full force spreading Paly's everlasting spirit to the faculty and student body.

The "S" (Soroptimist) club is one aimed at servicing the school and community. Club activities include: Organizing Red Cross blood drives, planning and attending events at convalescent homes, parking for Stanford football games, and helping with back-to-school night and graduation ceremonies.

Art Club

The Art Club is made up of students interested in art and art related activities. Our goals range from having art sales, mural projects, creative workshops, field trips, and social gatherings. The Art Club also presents art awards each year to deserving students.

Thespian Club

The Thespians' primary goal is to produce plays given throughout the school year. They form committees and provide props, costumes, make-up, and publicity for each production. Each year, the Thespians go to Ashland to see the Oregon Shakespearean Festival and the year concludes with a Charl Thespian Banquet.

Friendship Club

The friendship project is set up to help ninth graders feel welcome and to quickly feel a part of the Paly community. Over 125 Paly juniors and seniors are each paired with two freshmen buddies for the entire year. The upperclassmen meet with their ninth graders and provide support and answer questions about school geography, classes, activities, and student life. The program breaks down the traditional barriers between different class levels and provides an experience that is both fun and rewarding for both the older and younger students. The peer Counseling program organizes and supervises the program.

Special Friendship Club

The Peer Counseling Special Friendship Club brings together the thirteen students in the Learning Handicapped Special Day Class with 40 mainstream students to provide an important opportunity for learning and friendship between the groups on campus. The mainstream students work as tutors or are paired with a special friend in the class. The friends meet for lunch and other social activities. These activities range from pizza parties to picnics at Foothill Park to cross country skiing at Royal Gorge. The club is sponsored by Jim Toole and Special Education teacher Gerry Larvey.

Garden Club

The purpose of the Garden Club has been to establish and maintain a garden on the Paly campus. The plants grown range from typical carrots and tomatoes to six different kinds of lettuce, various flowers and herbs and many foreign vegetables. The Garden Club members eventually would like to grow enough to be able to give to needy families. The faculty sponsor is Ron Iverson.

MESA (Math, Engineering, Science, Achievement) encourages High achievement. It's purpose is to encourage and support students in taking advanced levels of mathematics and science in high school. To make students aware of and perhaps eventually pursue careers which use math and science. MESA offers free tutoring, scholarship incentive awards, a summer school enrichment program, employment opportunities and Academic and college counseling. Mesa activities include: Speakers, Fieldtrips, workshops, etc. all of which include math or science. MESA Students are either in Geometry or a higher class in math. MESA Associates are not in Geometry, MESA's main goal is to assist minority students in reaching their full academic potential.

German Club

The purpose of German Club is to promote the German culture by celebrating traditional German Festivals, such as the October Fest and the St. Nick Fest. The highlight of the year was the Fasghingsball, an evening of dancing and authentic German Food. Thanks to everyone who participated.

Latin Club

"Friends, Romans, Countrymen, as it was in the days of our elders, so it shall be now, that the noble precepts held dear by Aeneas and the founders of the city be emblazoned in splendor and opulence as a cherished reminder of our heritage. Behold then, this Constitution of the Latinum Collegium, in whose pages, commissioned by our illustrious Patrona, can be found those sublime principles which symbolize the spirit of our legacy, to wit: procrastination, meditation, mastication, and celebration. Like Gaul, we shall into three parts be divided. Thus, the titles of Plebs, Patricius, and Magistratus shall hereafter be established for so long as a single Roman shall lifts his gladius for Truth, Justice, and the Appian Way."

The purpose of the Spanish Club, La Tertulia, is to provide more Hispanic Cultural experience to students beyond the classroom. It's members participate in activities such as field trips to California's missions and restaurants, movies, slides presentations, folk dancing and Spanish Parties.

French Club

The French Club opened it's doors again this year after having a one year break. With the supportive work of three teachers-Madame Inan, Monsieur Leznoff and Monsieur McCord-and the eagerness of the many club members the club got off to a great start. The activities of the club include going to various French restaurants, plays, movies and museums. The purpose of French club is to provide students with a taste of French culture whether they study the language or not.

MSU

The purpose of Minority Student Union is to bring minority students together and help them achieve high standards in a predominately white school. MSU also encourages minority students to become more involved in Paly activities. This year MSU organized a potluck lunch with MESA; only one of their many activities.

CSF

The California Scholarship Federation is an honor society at Paly which applauds academic excellence. In the past, membership to CSF only meant maintaining a minimum of three A's and two B's. For a change, this year CSF presidents Sarah Greenberg, Kate Baldwin, and Julie Cunningham, with advisor Gerry Meyer, decided to initiate a new system. They started a voluntary teacher-aid program in which students could choose to help teachers of their choice in a variety of ways, while accumulating points toward an end of the year scholarship. The scholarship is given to seniors, so underclassmen can compile points throughout their years at Paly.

Literary Club

The Calliope is Paly's annual literary magazine which strives to recognize literary excellence in the Paly student body. It is composed of students' writing compiled, edited, and published by the Literary Club. The magazine accepts virtually any type of literary expression as well as student art and illustrations. The Literary Club is interested in any student contributing to The Calliope.

SIA

Students for International Awareness was designed as a forum for students who have no other place to voice an opinion on foreign affairs. The club is an excellent opportunity for interested students to discuss and debate current events. At meetings this year the SIA club has discussed and debated American policy in Lebanon and other developments in the Middle East. Another topic which has been covered, is the nuclear freeze and its effects on the Crusie and Pershing II missiles being deployed in Western Europe. The club believes that student discussion of pertinent issues is essential for an educated populace.

ACADEMICS

Dedication

Mr. Neff attended graduate school at Columbia University in New York. He has held both teaching and administrative positions during the last thirty years.

Robert started as a teacher at Washington State and then moved to California where he worked for the state department for eight years. For the next six years, he worked at schools in Kabul, Afghanistan and Islamabad, Pakistan and then, in 1971, he returned to Palo Alto.

Upon his return, he was hired as an English instructor at Cubberley High School, and later moved to Paly as the head of the English department and advisor for the Campanile.

After retirement, Mr. Neff plans to spend a year in Australia working part time as a consultant helping to establish a program similar to the A.P. program at Paly. Following his year in Australia, Neff has been offered two administrative positions, one in Saudi Arabia, the other in Washington State in a Jobs for Youth program, his choice is still uncertain.

Mr. Neff's many talents have been greatly utilized at Paly and his presence will be sorely missed. We wish him luck in all of his future endeavors.

After teaching in the Palo Alto Unified School District for nearly thirty years, Hal Riddle is retiring this year into his own business.

Mr. Riddle graduated from high school in 1936; from there, he went on to attend Modesto Jr. College. During World War II, he served with the Second Marine division. At the end of the War, Hal entered San Jose State, and afterwards started work as a machinist. After four years, he took his first teaching job at Oakdale High School. In 1955, he started his teaching career in the Palo Alto District. Mr. Riddle taught for a year at Paly before being the first teacher hired at Cubberley where he started the metal shop. After 25 years at Cubberley, Hal returned to Paly, where he has taught for the past several years.

Not only is he a successful teacher, but he has written two books, numerous articles, and received the National Teacher of the Year Award in 1978.

Mr. Riddle's teaching ability and sense of humor have been a great asset to Paly. We are all sorry to see him leave, and we wish him the best of luck.

With the end of the school year and graduation, come good-bye's not only to the class of '84, but also to our head librarian, Alice Thompson.

Before coming to Paly in 1963 as a student teacher, Mrs. Thompson had helped in the library at Sequoia High School for several years. In 1964, she received a full time position as head librarian and decided to return to college. Mrs. Thompson graduated from San Jose State in 1968 with a Master's degree in Library Science.

Over the years, Mrs. Thompson has seen the old Paly Library torn down and a new one built, the library's collection grow, and five different principals come and go.

After retirement, she and her husband plan to travel. They hope to go to Europe, Brazil, and Australia. Their more immediate plans however, include buying a small camper and, starting from their home in Capitola, visit every national park in all fifty states.

Around the library, it was not uncommon to see Alice busily searching for a book for a student or helping a student with research. She will be missed in the library and we all wish her luck in the future.

Paly's Academic Decathlon team consisting of six members, is a team of gifted scholars who compete at the county, state, and national levels with teams from other schools. Aca-Deca members, coached by history teacher Shalah Wolfsohn and English teacher John Thompson, compete in such areas as mathematics, grammar, science, history, and literature. In the past, Paly's team has done quite well, winning three state championships. This year however, they were defeated at county level. An unfortunate misunderstanding of the amount of time allotted contributed to their defeat.

The Alternative School focuses on close student-teacher relations as well as providing a more individual learning environment. The curriculum is based on individual needs to maximize their learning interests.

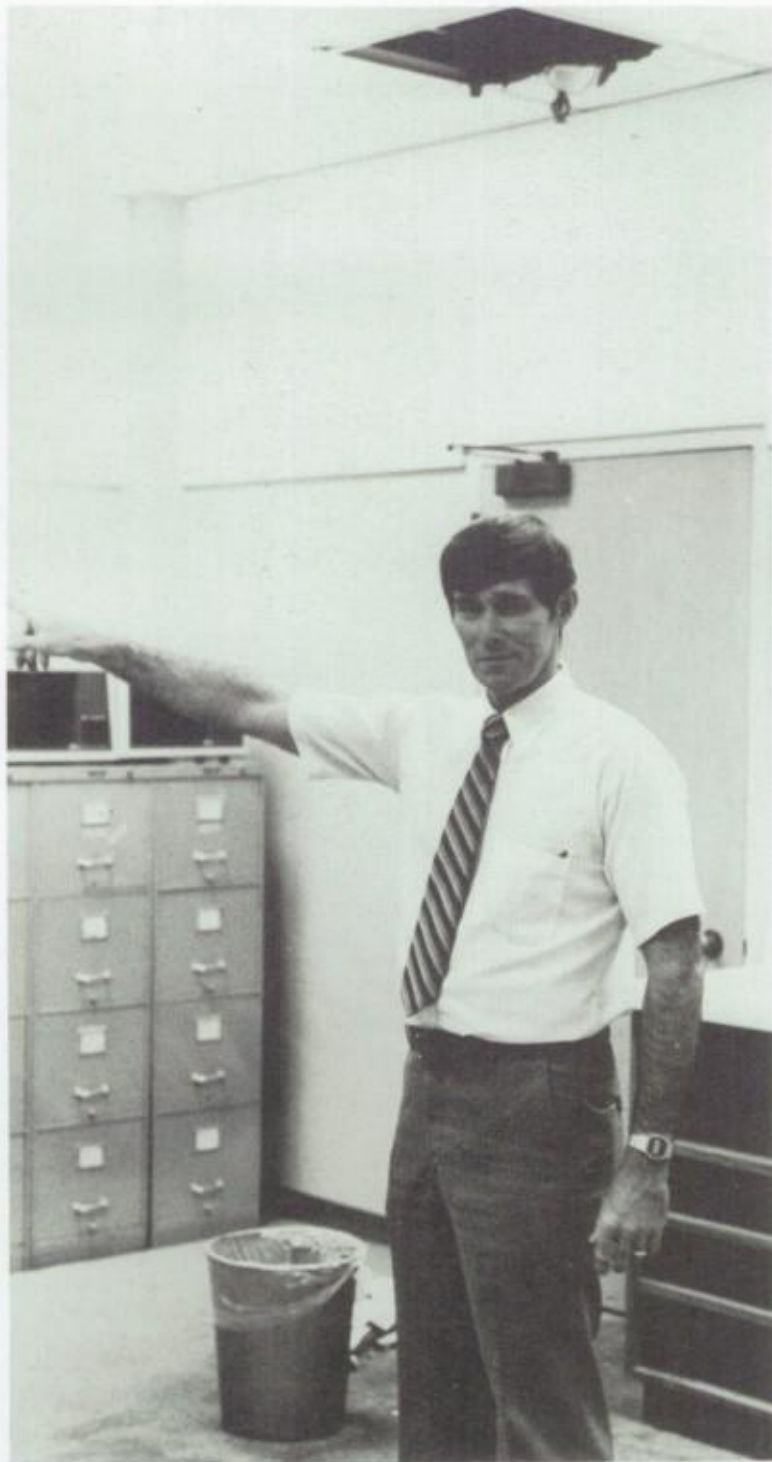

A-school, now in its eleventh year, is forced to offer fewer classes than before due to declining enrollment. Courses offered in A-school include: English, math, social studies and contract P.E. The students and teachers involved in A-school feel strongly that education should be tailored, on an individual basis, to the students needs. Although the A-school has sometimes come into conflict with the administration, students and staff try to keep communication channels open to avoid conflict.

The administration at Paly is dedicated to parent-teacher-staff relations. Jim Shroyer, although only in his third year at Paly, has contributed greatly to this program. The faculty communication meetings keep our well-educated staff informed and up-to-date.

Jim Shroyer also strengthens the bond between students and staff by attending as many of the school's athletic and cultural events as possible. The new SB813 law has forced the faculty to tighten up on attendance procedures, while at the same time increasing the amount of funds available to maintain Paly's current academic standards.

The Principal's job is made somewhat easier by the presence of three assistant principals: Paul Bataille, budget and records; Bob Leon, maintenance and student activities; and Bob Alvares, guidance and counseling.

This team of administrators composes a successful working unit at Paly.

Counselors

The counselors at Paly have always been a facet in the student-school relationship. The new and demanding SB 813 law has brought many students to the counselors inquiring about the new requirements and changing classes to meet them. The counselors are very knowledgeable in their field and are trained to listen and advise. They are always available to offer an understanding ear and give sound counsel to the student about his or her individual problem. The counseling staff has always been an important and integral part of life at Paly and will continue to be such in the future.

The Paly Drama department, with instructional supervision by Michael Kass, is organized to bring forth maximum creativity in a learning environment. Through several performances a year, and fundraisers, the Drama department exhibits the finest in high school acting ability and citizenship. Their productions this year included, The Prime of Jean Brodie, Fiddler on the Roof, Macbeth Did It, among others. Coordinating their productions with the efforts of the stage tech crew, the Drama department produces several successful productions each year.

The Paly English department strives to maintain its accustomed standards of excellence. The mandate of the department members is to see that each student on this campus is prepared to the fullest extent possible in all aspects of the mastery of the English language. Because such a high percentage of Paly students go on to higher education, the duties of the instructors become increasingly demanding.

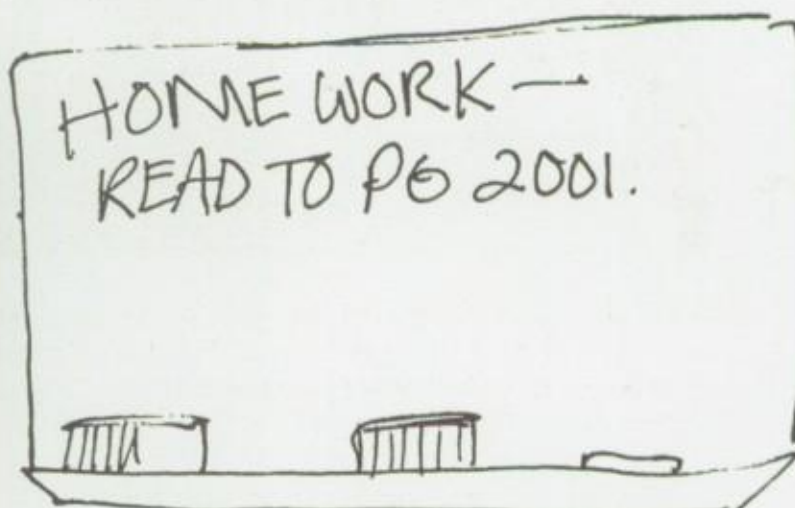

In addition to required courses, the English department offers a number of electives for Juniors and Seniors. These include Humanities, World and American Classics, Chaucer and Shakespeare, Advanced Composition, BCS, and AP English.

Upon his retirement, Mr. Neff will leave his position as head of the department, a position he has held for the past five years.

Foreign Language

The Foreign Language department, under the direction of Dr. Waltrud Cate, gives Paly students an excellent chance to not only learn a language, French, Spanish, German, Japanese, and Latin are offered at Paly, but also the cultures and lifestyles of various peoples. At one time such exotic languages such as Russian, Chinese, and Hebrew were offered in the Palo Alto School District but due to declining enrollment and budget cuts, the foreign language department must now try to maintain its high standard of excellence on a smaller budget.

Despite the change in uniforms, the bands continue to be an innovative form of entertainment. This year the advanced band, directed by Brad North, is conducted or "drumma-jored" by two students, Frances Herring and somebody else. This new approach seems to be working well, many creative innovations in the field show, and the band has also placed among the top bands in the state at different competitions throughout the year. Also, the flag line has been expanded this year and a rifle corps has been added to the roster. In addition to competitions, rally performances, and half-time shows, the band also gives several concerts during the year including the twenty-four hour marathon fundraiser in March.

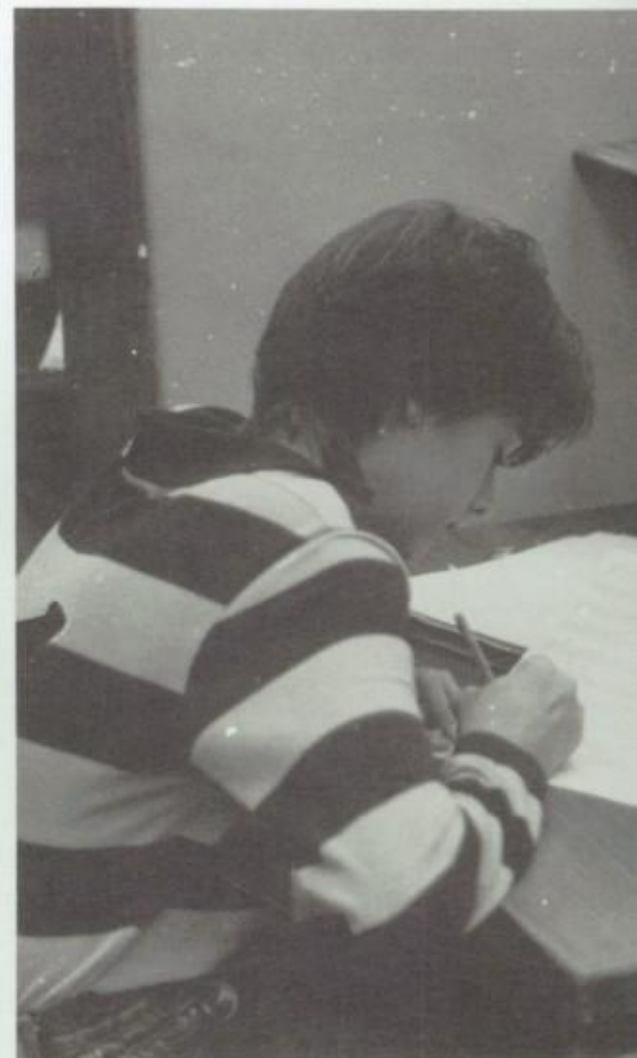

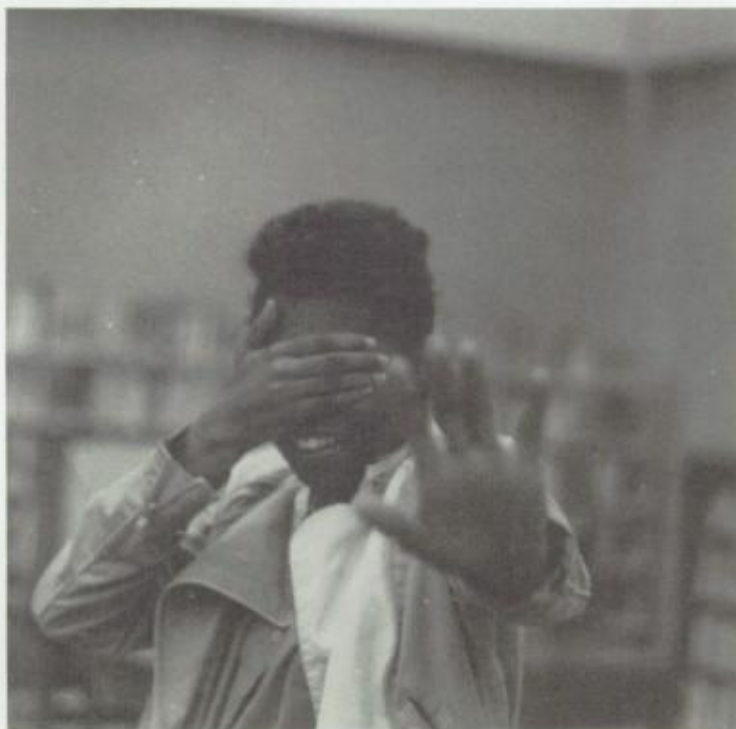

The orchestra conducted by Teresa Tanner, provides several concerts a year. These concerts are performed by Paly's finest string instrumentalists.

The Jazz Band, directed by Doug Hornbeck, continues to entertain audiences with music ranging from traditional to more contemporary forms of jazz. The instrumental music, and musicians at Paly improve over each passing year, and continues to command respect from many other schools in several categories of competition.

The Paly library has always been a dependable place for quiet research and studying. Students have the opportunity to pick and choose their necessary materials out of a 30,000 volume collection. If there has been any problem finding what one needs, head librarian Alice Thompson and well-trained assistant Debbie Harris are always there to help. With the assistance of students, faculty, and parent volunteers, the library is a productive learning center where some hard-core studying can be done.

The staff of Paly's annual yearbook, the Madrono, has many new and exciting ideas to work with this year. Color, theme, and graphics are just a few areas in which these ideas are being applied.

With the 1983-84 Madrono staff comes an attitude of responsibility and enthusiasm. The staff is dedicated to meeting deadlines and working within financial restraints as well as making the book the most fun and interesting ever.

As a product of this positive attitude, this year's Madrono can't help but be the best one ever.

Paly's mathematics department, consisting of thirteen instructors, offers a wide spectrum of classes, from beginning algebra through advanced calculus. With the retirement of instructional supervisor Hepworth last year, and the addition of several new teachers this year, our math department has undergone some changes. However, the new teachers appear to have adapted well and they continue to uphold Paly's reputation as having one of the finest math departments around. The math department aims at preparing its students for each successive class at Paly, and, inevitable at college.

Physical Education

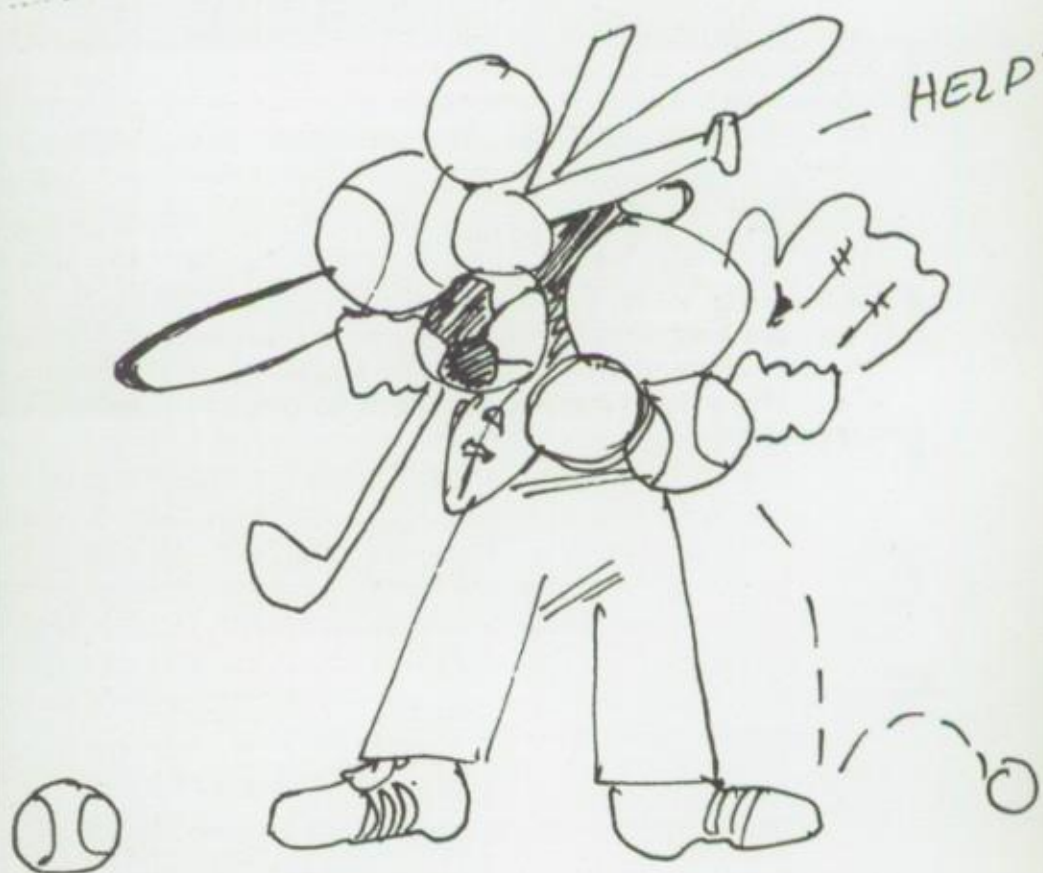

The Physical Education department at Paly offers a wide spectrum of activities. Even though budget cuts have forced the P.E. department to reduce the number of classes offered, the selection still remains more diversified than at most other high schools. Some of the activities include a gymnastics /self-defense course, archery, and golf.

The contract P.E. program also adds to the range of classes offered by allowing the student to present his or her contract for an individual or team sport, to Judith Stark, the department head, for approval. The student must have a minimum of nine hours per week, and in most cases an instructional supervisor. The contract P.E. program is also available to off-season athletes at Paly. This year the P.E. department has added something new by creating inter-murals. They are lunchtime and after school competitions between the faculty and students of Paly. The games improve student faculty relations.

Paly's Practical Arts Department including, above: Dow Huskey, Benjamin Jamison, Hal Riddle, Nate Rosenberg, Donna Sheppel, and R.O.P. supervisor Dick Koon, provides valuable training in such areas as woodworking, metalworking, drafting, typing, business law accounting, architectural drawing, and shorthand. The department is divided into three areas; business, home economics, and industrial arts. Classes such as accounting, typing, and business law fall under the heading of business. Under the home economics category come such classes as sewing, independent living, and international foods. Classified under industrial arts are classes such as metal and woodshop, and drafting. At one time or another, students are likely to require skill in a practical art, therefore, they are not only an important subject, but a useful skill as well. With such a heavy emphasis placed on them, Paly's Practical Arts department handles the weight well and gives the students a thorough yet balanced knowledge of chosen classes.

The R.O.P. (Regional Occupational Program) is designed so that Paly students are able to take advantage of classes no longer offered at Paly. Through R.O.P., students are able to take such classes as Automotive Specialist, Cosmetology, Custodial Maintenance, Word Processing, and Professional Landscaping. R.O.P. is a valuable opportunity for students to receive on-the-job training and experience the different atmospheres of various jobs.

School Service

The school service staff, including janitors, cafeteria workers, office staff, attendance and textbook personnel, the Auditor, Registrar, and teacher aides, are a vital part of life at Paly. Many of these people are student volunteers who collect rollsheets, answer telephones, correct and grade papers, prepare labs, or work in the cafeteria. While most earn credit for their efforts, others receive no compensation for their time. The valuable services performed by the large paid staff include cleaning the campus, general maintenance, preparing food, and bookkeeping.

Although only two years of science are required at Paly, an extensive program is offered for those who are interested. Five different courses are offered including general science, biology, chemistry, physics, and geology. Each course is tailored to match the students' abilities and individual interests. Labs are also an important part of class time, giving the students a chance to visualize the theories written in their textbooks.

Advance Placement is offered for those who wish to earn college credit and who have an avid interest in the subject. Science classes are continually expanding at Paly, helping meet the need for scientists in today's technological society.

The social studies department at Paly offers a wide variety of both required and elective courses which range from European history to family life and Psychology. This year the department has initiated more programs in American Political Behavior and reading skills development. The department, one of the largest in the school, attempts to meet the academic interests and needs of each student while preparing those students for a successful transition from high school to adult life.

The long-standing Special Ed. program at Paly is still here and is still providing excellent education and experience to a handful of very special people. Headed by Judy Freed, Jim Ruck, Gerry Larvey, Carolyn Ruck, and assisted by several teachers the program has been going strong at Paly for many years and, hopefully, will continue to do so. The individual needs of the students are met on a daily basis by this staff of professionals. Working together as a team, this trained staff helps to ready these students for the world around them.

Palo Alto High School's art department offers a diverse and supportive setting in which students may explore and benefit from creative, academic, and social experience. Besides a wide curriculum, students can use the department resources on their own time.

Courses range from commercial art to ceramics to art history. Also, there are drawing and painting courses which stress techniques using pen and ink, charcoal, pastels, oils, and water colors.

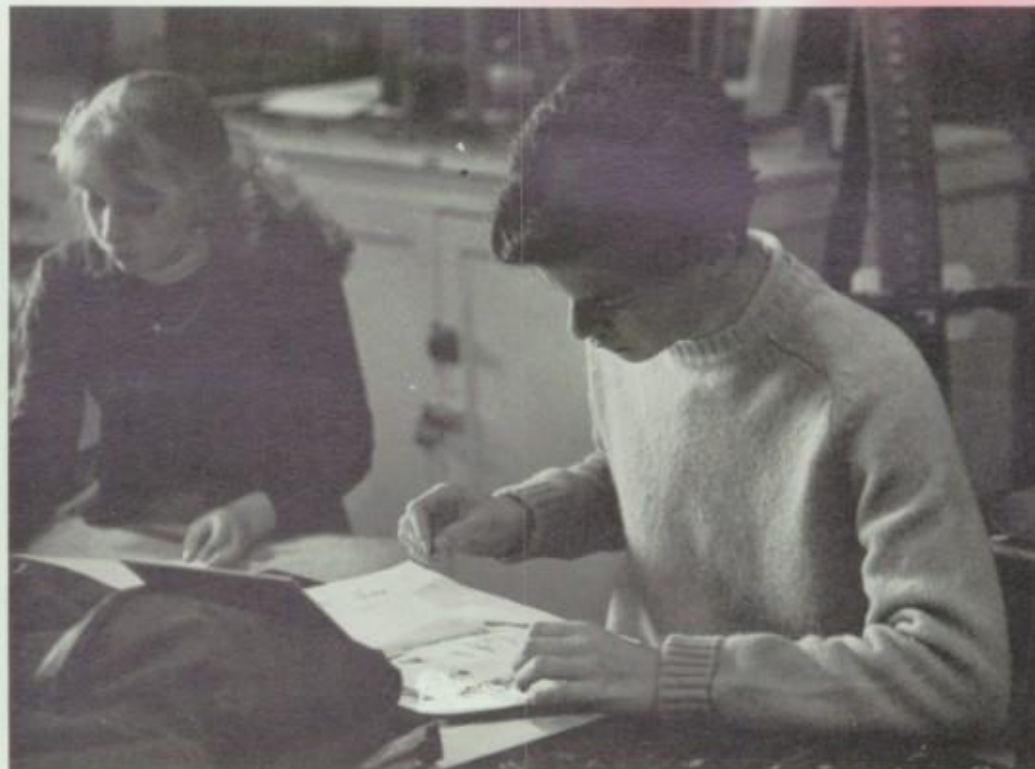

Commercial art is excellent training for students interested in a career in that art form. The class assists students to develop an understanding of, and competency in, design concepts, layouts, airbrush illustration, and copy presentation.

Students enrolled in photography classes, taught by Ray Kortan, are instructed in the basic skills of photography including: film processing, making of prints and enlargements, mounting and display of finished work, and related terminology and techniques.

The Paly stage tech crew is a group of unique people on whose shoulders rests the success of the Paly drama department productions. Their duties include: building and maintaining sets, lighting, backstage operations and coordinating scenery. While generally made up of individualists, the Paly stage tech crew performs well as a team in most situations.

C h o r u s

The Palo Alto High School chorus, led by Cathy Fujikawa, is a talented group of vocalists who perform several times a year. The chorus also participates in assemblies and some drama productions. The choir, a specialized branch of the chorus, makes numerous trips to places outside of the school to provide entertainment and to recruit new members to replace graduating seniors.

The frosh-soph squad narrowly missed catching the SCVAL championship, being denied by one goal in a heartbreaking loss to Gunn at the season's end. With tremendous team determination they continued on to place fifth at the NorCal tournament. Ian Bricken, Jeff Petersen, Mike Novotny, Courtenay Westgaard, Ollie McIntyre, and Chris Hallenbeck, were awarded all-league. Ian Bricken was also awarded the team's most valuable player.

Tennis Enjoys A Great Season

Team comraderie and spirit remained high throughout the season. The team members were supportive of each other and a true team spirit prevailed. We hosted future CCS rival Santa Catalina one weekend and introduced them to a Paly dance. We worked on strategies, and strokes, the "mental game". We were in shape, played hard, and had a winning season. Most of all we improved and had fun.

Vikings Suffer Season

The finish of this years varsity football season, a 13-0 loss to Gunn, was typical of the whole year. The team was outmanned, but not outhit. We created our own problems with 9 fumbles and an interception. Even though we finished 0-9 the team came together in practice. We played our best games against our toughest opponents, league champs Wilcox and Santa Clara. On offense we were led by the running of Tom Aarts, John Parker, and Joe Guillory behind a young offensive line Colin Sox, David Kurtzman, Noah Hicken, Will Hancock, Nelson Hancock, and Michael Schwerin. Aarts tied an SCVAL record with 39 rushing attempts in his final game against Gunn. On defense our front led by Ian Sullivan, Steve Pursell, David Kurtzman, Christian Kalar, Eric Hayes, Jim Niethammer, Nelson Hancock, Tom Aarts, and Matt Fisher controlled our opponents running game.

F/S Gridders Improve

An up and down season for the frosh-soph team ended on a high note with a 22-14 win over Gunn. Coming back after Gunn had tied the game at 14-14 the young Vikes marched for the winning score. With fine line blocking, the running game of Dan Peters, the passing of Barry Campbell and receiving of Rich Kirk, the hard earned victory was achieved. The season opened with a 28-14 win over Lincoln, a scoreless tie with Cupertino and then a 2-4 league season. Many future prospects on the team included all leaguers Barry Campbell, second team quarterback, and first team all league Buddy Rowell at tight end, and Dan Peters at running back. Other players having good seasons were Art Lum, guard, Rich Kirk at flanker, and linebackers Joe Schmelzer and Mark King.

Spikers Show Spirit

This year's volleyball team was one of the most cohesive volleyball teams in recent history. The teams improved tremendously during the season due to high spirits and a willingness to learn and work. The team compiled a 4-2 record in non-league games, and a 1-5 record in the SCVAL. Playing in the hardest league, the skill level was high, and Paly played admirably against league-leading teams Los Altos, and Mt. View. Suffering from a lack of consistencey, the teams only league win was against Milpitas. Sheer determination enabled the team to come back and win three consecutive games after losing the first two, to take the match. The team coached by Judy Stark, will be losing seniors Sandrine DeCleve, co-captain Lisa Malcolm, and captain Lynn Murphy, who played outstandingly all year. The team will draw strength from featuring players Jennifer Eckstrand, Liz Halldorson, Diem Nguyen, Iris Rodriguez, Julie Tinklenberg, and Robin Young. Special thanks to Laura and Scott for all their help.

Cross Country Goes The Distance

The 1983-84 boys cross country team was short on experience, but long on enthusiasm and effort. Injuries and illness hampered the team, but the varsity regrouped for a fourth place league finish. The Frosh/Soph came in second in the SCVAL.

Swimmers And Divers Perform

The Girls' Swimming and Diving team made an excellent showing in the 1983 season, culminating in a third place award for Varsity and a second place for Frosh-Soph in the Santa Clara Valley Athletic League. Nine girls made CCS qualifying times. They were Stacey Kraemer (for 100 yd. Backstroke.) Melissa Zaharias, Erika Taddey, Shelly Goddard, Alisa Hamai, Julie Misfeldt, Kate Jordan, Betsy Nute, and Logan Conway. Conway captured an impressive CCS fourth place for her diving. Because only four seniors are leaving this year, next year's team looks strong.

Netters- Power And Poise

This year's Varsity basketball team captured the SCVAL title with an undefeated league mark, and was the first team in more than 35 years of Paly basketball to go undefeated during the regular season. The team was characterized by unselfish players, and a balanced offensive attack. No one man led the scoring attack and more often than not, at least three starters finished in double figures. Anyone on the court was a scoring threat and the Vikings ability to control the ball helped them control the tempo of the game. The Vikes lost the season opener, but bounced back to win seven straight. The only other loss came to Independence by a margin of a single point. After an undefeated season the Vikes crushed San Jose in their first game in the CCS playoffs. The team is ranked 3rd in the CCS tournament, but are serious contenders for the title. Again, the key to Paly's success was their balance and ability to play together. Kyle Hayes dominated most games inside, sparking Paly with slam dunks, and key rebounds. Junior Brad Branson shot well from outside. Both Ryan Snyder and Sam Swan played consistent ball throughout the season. Mike Yep and Tom Heller added a new demension to al already indescribable team.

Frosh/Soph Shoot For Second

The 1983-84 boys frosh/soph basketball team finished with an impressive season. Throughout the history of basketball at Palo Alto High School, the Frosh/Soph team has been outstanding, and this year's team was no exception. Returning players Pat Brown, Charles Romney, Braden Turnbull, and Aaron Foreman provided the skill and much of the experience needed for a winning team. Freshmen Earl Flaggs and Kendall Simmons showed strong athletic ability. The team finished second in the SCVAL league. The team suffered its only defeat against first place Los Altos.

Female Cagers Have An Impressive Season

Although the girls varsity basketball team lacked the experience, the young team fared well in the league play. With four team members being freshmen, three sophomores, three juniors, and a mere two seniors, the team showed a variety of age and skill level. The two seniors Sheila French and Sally McLeod showed leadership and pulled the team through a season of rebuilding. Returning juniors Shannon Hamilton and Sarah Perry paced the game in scoring, while freshman and sophomores showed potential. A blend of hard workers helped make this year's team an experience.

The J.V. girl's basketball had a strong season, though they still need some improvement in their teamwork. Jeanine Davis was a steady contributor, demonstrating strong dribbling and defensive techniques. Also, Sophomore Michelle Turner paced the Vikes with her strong offensive leadership and defensive play. Freshmen guards Angie Davis and Mihee Choi provided accurate outside shooting to balance the Viking attack. Out of only two returning players, Uta Reimnitz, at 5'9" was an awesome presence under the basket. With more coaching and hard work the team should improve its standings next season.

Force And Finesse Help Soccer Players Win

This year's boys varsity soccer team was outstanding, and placed high in the SCVAL league. A strong offense, and a relentless defense helped the Vikings finish in the top of the league. Led by coach Harlin Harkness, senior team members Brian Beswick, Mike Crawford, Robert Kimsey, Jody Lee, Dan Luotto, Dave Simoni, Dan Spector, John "Dude" Voorhees, and juniors Sean Bourke, Andy Chmyz, and Robert Harley, helped the team surpass other competitors. Experience and finesse made the season successful and thrilling, but more important, team work and practice made each player improve his individual skill level.

The Promotion Of Players Proves Costly

This years boys frosh/soph soccer team started the season strongly. The elder members of the team had the experience and the skill to provide the backbone of a winning team. Unfortunately for the team, three key members were promoted to play for the varsity. Gael DeCleve, Mike Spector, and Wally Whittier chose to play the final four games of the season for the varsity, and frosh/soph was left with a less experienced team. Next years should be strong, and hopefully hold together through the 1985 season.

Girls Soccer Scores High

Paly's Varsity soccer team returned to post season Central Coastal Section for the sixth straight year. Paly's Alice Deisinger, and Deanne Ellingson were the main energy for an outstanding season. Alice and Deanne were captains for this year's squad. Leading the Vikings in scoring was Senior Lynn Murphy with 13 goals. Sylvie Herrick, and Kristen Tucker also contributed often to the scoring drive. Halfbacks Mary Karen Olson, Michelle Perez, Teresa Schwaar, Deirdre Loungway, and Carolyn Sliney all will be returning next season. The fullbacks were one of Paly's strongest assets. Both Kari and Kirsten Norbeck, along with all league honor Denise Novotony stopped teams with their defense. Junior Kendra Short will be the goalie for next year's Varsity team.

J/V Girl Booters Kick Up A Good Season

With a powerful team consisting of freshmen, the Palo Alto High School girls' J.V. soccer team rolled to an undefeated season and were SCVAL champions. With the support of such players as Tommy Blakely, Maira Murnane, Debbi Reese, Karen McDonald, and Katie Woodworth, the team had fewer than ten goals scored against them all season. Hopefully, with the return of all team members, future teams will continue to be as dominating as this years.

Badminton Team Has High Hopes

The team was comprised mainly of young players with a strong desire to win the league. The team was led by Juniors Ann Maruhashi, Sophomores Kerri Fox, Hillary Thagard and Michelle Turner. The boys were led by Sophomores Joel Kiernan and Dave Martin with help from Dean Hessler and Lee Penrose. This all Co-Ed Team has hopes of dethroning league champions Gunn and starting a few years of their own dominance. Coaches Ed Hart and Len Hill have high hopes for this young team and know that next year's will be even stronger.

Baseball Bats Opponents

For the second consecutive year, Palo Alto High baseball, will start the season with a new coach. Doug Boyett, a Palo Alto High Alumni and former Paly baseball player, will lead the team. Considering the team consists of many experienced players this will be by no means a set back.

A strong point of the team is their hitting. The team's power will lie in juniors Charlie Goldberg, Andy Murray, and seniors Mark Thompson, Dave Kurtzman, and Joe Guillory.

The coaches also give high praise to the team's two American Legion players, Brian Harwell and Rob Harley.

Other key players include varsity standouts senior Carter Olsen, Mike Leland, John Kenny, and Pat Brown.

F/S Baseball

Baseball Team Has High Hopes

The Frosh-Soph team started off with a 3-2 record, led by the dynamic pitching of Steve Johnson, Allan Ball, and Kendel Simmons. Other outstanding players this year include Sophomores Barry Campbell, Buddy Rowell, Charles Romney, and Mark King. With expectations of a second or third place finish in the league, the team members are looking forward to a strong season.

Youth Enhances Varsity Softball

This year's softball team is truly young. With only two returning varsity and two junior varsity members from last year's squad, the remaining members are freshmen. The coaches, however, have very high expectations for a winning season because this group of girls is not only enthusiastic but talented.

Upper Left: #30 pitches at the speed of light. Above: A shortstop fields balls before a big game. Left: The Coach, not amused at all, watches her team doing their first game of the season.

Softball Sights A Good Season

Although this year's J.V. softball team may be young and inexperienced, the team is enthusiastic and willing to work. The players are cooperative and ready to play any position that will further the team's success. With this attitude the coach is confident that the team will have a good season.

Swimmers Strive For A Strong Finish

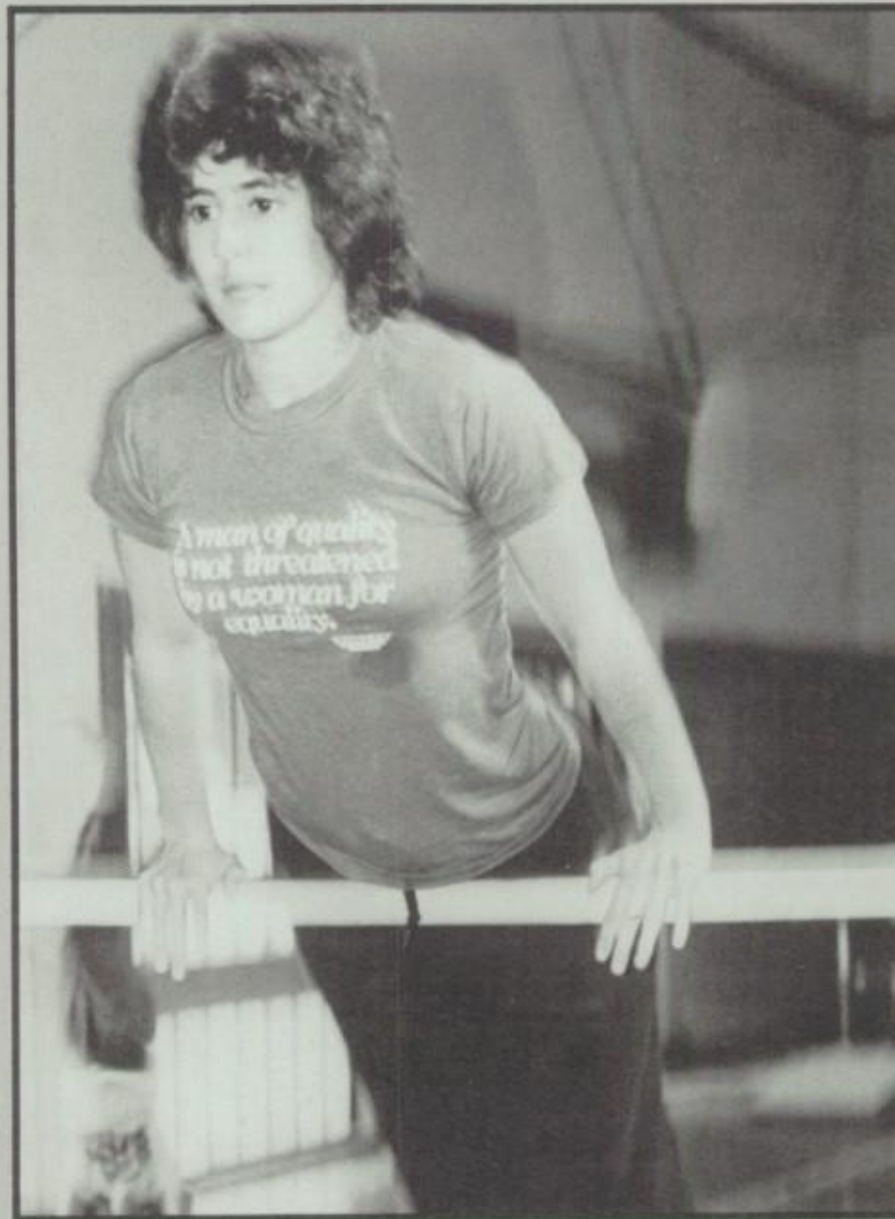

Palo Alto High School can expect to have the strongest boys' swim team in five years. Many talented swimmers will contribute to the Viking superiority as they are expected to finish third in the league. Seniors Brett Graessle and Don Williams are expected to give strong performances in the butterfly and freestyle. If all goes well the team may accomplish a well deserved first.

Gymnastics

Gymnastics team: Flavia Araujo, Colleen Charland, Noreen Curtain, Eddie Dudley, Carolyn Liston, Laurie Masciarelli, Gwendoline Mazzara, Jill Rogers, Catherine Sykes, Lisa Tharpe, Erika Tingey, Dalia Weinstein, Lisa Young, Kirsten Westgaard, Leah Zaner.

All: Gymnasts in action.

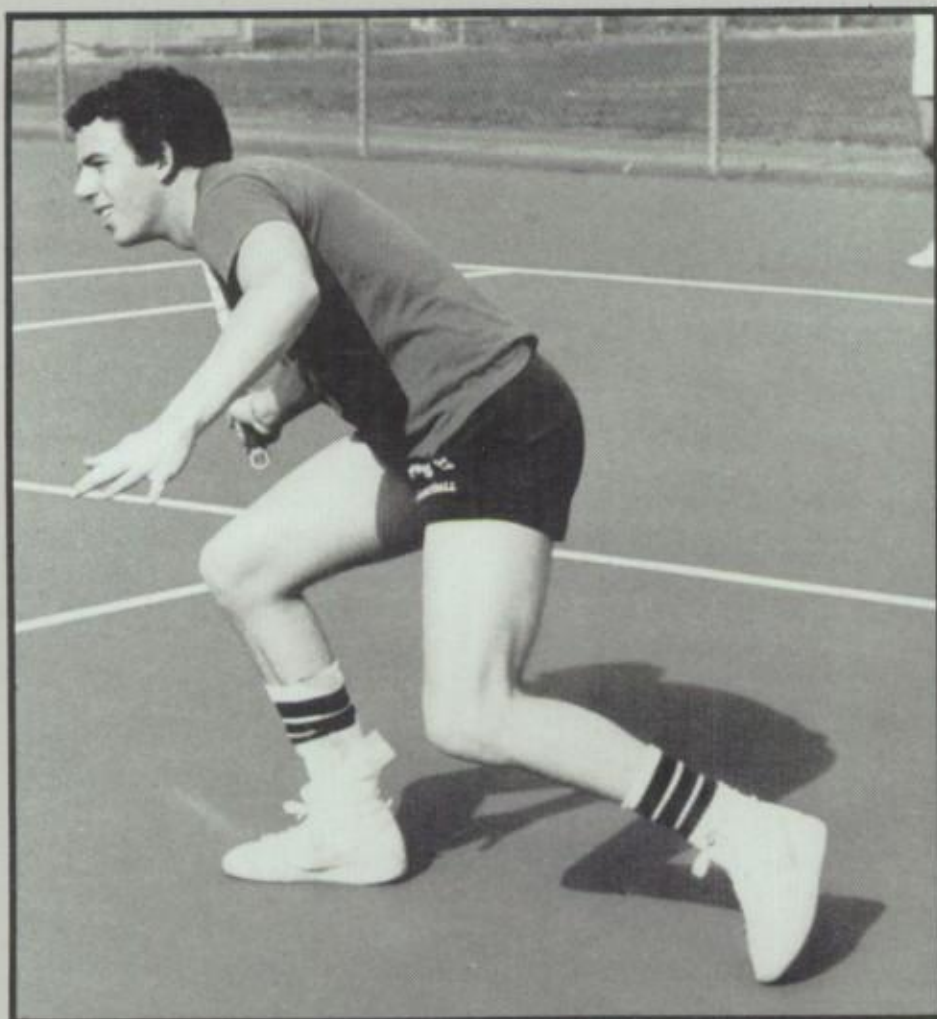

Gymnastics Team Flips Out

The Paly Gymnastics Team is a dedicated hard-working group of athletes. They demonstrated determination as they were challenged to learn high risk new moves and perfect other moves. The various grade levels blended together as they helped each other to become a cohesive and enthusiastic team.

This year they hope to redeem themselves with the addition of several young players. Chris Hewitt and James Johnson will once again top the singles ladder, adding their skill and finesse to the team.

Track And Field

In Alphabetical Order: (Girls' Team) Amy Armstrong, Beth Aronson, Beckie Barbee, Margaret Bennion, Kit Bramble, Julia Cahn, Sarah Calfee, Jennifer Chang, Kelly Chapel, Lezlee Cox, Jennifer Crawford, Susan Curry, Jeanine Davis, Quincy Dedner, Alice Deisinger, Linda Delnevo, Adrienne Donald, Wendy Ewing, Christine Fiegl, Anita Franks, Shiela French, Michelle Fusak, Francy Hall, Kristy Hall, Hilary Hart, Alyssa Kent, Rachael Kirby, Ellen Lemley, Kristine Makowski, Monique Mayo, Elizabeth McCullough, Page McDonald, Katie McKinley, Sally McLeod, Paige Meredith, Portia Monberg, Pam Montgomery, Benita Nall, Lisa Namphy, Denise Novotny, Mimi Ocken, Mary Karen Olson, Renee Pacheco, Jennifer Parra, Michelle Perez, Sarah Perry, Caitlin Pulleyblank, Karen Rabin, Leslie Schonher, Teresa Schwaar, Erika Seid, Marnie Seid, Carolyn Sliney, Lisa Slinger, Sharon Smart, Ingrid Storer, Hilary Strain, Kiley Swope, Kristin Tucker, Laura Van, Brooke Wheeler, Victoria White, Kat Willrich, Chantae Young, Tali Zulman, Echelle Green.

Track Team Shows Promise

This year's track team not only has several outstanding track talents, but also a high number of strong runners to help maintain the team's strength.

The 1984 Olympics may be out of the question for Palo Alto High's Sophomore talents, Quincy Dedner and Don Powell, but competing in the Los Angeles Coliseum, site of the '84 Olympic track and field events, will host the California state track meet this spring and according to girl's head coach Paul Jones, "Paly should be well represented."

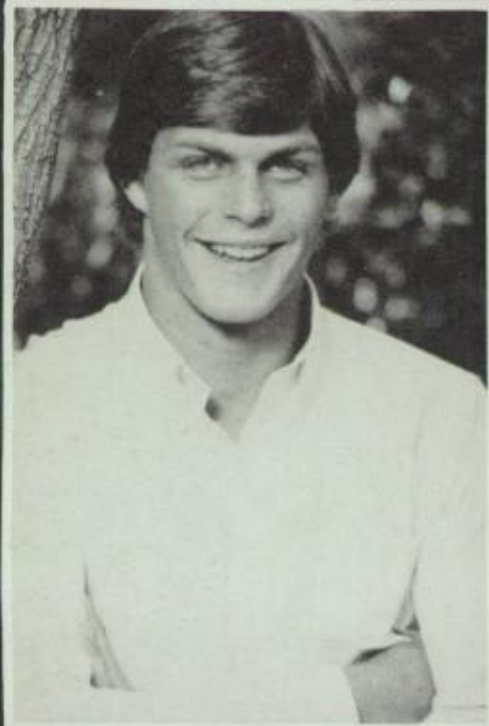

Also returning senior distance runner, Alice Deisinger, will be a strong influence in the team's success. With the combination of a strong sprinting and distance team, the track team should come out near the top.

WHAT DO I KNOW FOR CERTAIN?
 After giving this question six years of critical and undivided thought I arrived at an exceedingly short and simple but never the less a most revealing answer, and it was: "I know for certain that I do not KNOW!" (The thinkers among you might understand and even benefit from this.)

Congratulations to the class of '84 for being the best class there ever was! Special thanks to A.G., L.G., M.W. (our Flag Captain) and the rest of the Color Guard, K.D., E.R., A.V., J.F., M.H., G.L., K.B., A.K., A.M., A.W., R.V., T.W., J.W., Samantha, Casey and especially Joyce (it's been 10 years), Randi, Kristin, Mom, and Dad. I love you! Good luck to next year's Band and Color Guard! Nicole Wives

DARKING FOREVER!!

Mary Stewart Cambridge

Diana Casso
There was a time when you were so young and unaware in that way
They made you feel they loved you, or how they say
your going away is when you you don't play
and this song I sing will tell you why
I'm feeling feeling lonely
rejection
I'm knowing know your going wrongly
And they can see how much just trying to be and not what we see.
And even now believe that it's not real and only a dream

Brian Christman
for David and John

The most important things are the hardest things to say. They are the things you get ashamed of, because words diminish them—words shrink things that seemed limitless when they were in your head to no more than lining size when they're brought out. But it's more than that isn't it? The most important things lie too close to wherever your secret heart is buried like landmarks to a treasure your enemies would love to steal away. And you may make revelations that cost you dearly only to have people look at you in a funny way, not understanding what you've said at all, or why you thought it was so important that you almost cried while you were saying it. That's the worst I think when the secret stays locked within not for want of a teller but for want of an understanding ear. S.K.

The end of the beginning
Is here at last.
No doubting, no regretting,
The die are cast
Rain is rain, and that is all-
No more, no less.
Nothing you do slows its fall.
That is my guess.
Down the hallway we must go.
Turn left, turn right,
Where it leads I do not know.
I'll get there in my own sweet time so let me go in peace, ok?

... WE do not loose heart. Though outwardly we are wasting away, yet inwardly we are being renewed day by day. For our light and momentary troubles are achieving for us an eternal glory that far outweighs them all. So we fix our eyes not on what is seen, but on what is unseen. For what is seen is temporary, but what is unseen is eternal.

My four years at Paly were great. Had fun with Sandy and Marianne going to movies at Larches. Thanks to my mom for giving me the push and the support for all my four years. Thanks to Mr. & Mrs. Hutton for always being there when I needed a friend. Even if I don't take your advice, had fun with canoe and the player with Basketball. I really want to be a sports date. I know I will take a long time, but I know I will enjoy it.

Success

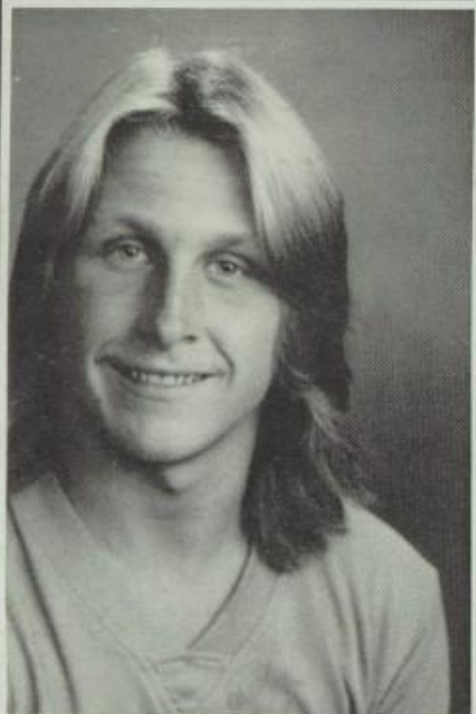

Of have I brooded on defeat and pain,
The pathos of the stupid, stumbling throng.
These I ignore to-day and only long
To pour my soul forth in one trumpet strain.
One clear, grief-shattering, triumphant song.
For all the victories of man's high endeavor,
Palm-bearing, laureled deeds that live forever,
The splendor clothing him whose will is strong
Hast thou beheld the deep, glad eyes of one
Who has persisted and achieved? Rejoice!
On naught diviner shines the all-seeing sun.
Salute him with free heart and choral voice.
'Midst flippant, feeble crowds of spectres wan,
The bold, significant, successful man.

Thanks very much to those who took the time to care, enjoy, love, and adventure with me -- you will always be loved + remembered

And to Jennifer, who's done this + much, much more - you are a great best friend -- I love you more than you will ever know!

To Mom, Dad, Benji, + Keith - A better family I couldn't ask for - many memories will always bring a smile

If you live in search of your dreams,
There is new hope with every
sunrise,
And new dreams with every horizon

It is time to go,
I love you all very much
Keep in touch...

A TYPICAL YEARBOOK DEADLINE

- 9:00 a.m. Mr. Kortan opens room 901 on the Sunday before the Monday deadline.
- 9:30 a.m. The first of the diehards arrive.
- 10:00 a.m. Most of the crew is present (all six of them).
- 10:30 a.m. The darkroom is operating at full capacity.
- 11:00 a.m. A small quarrel over radio stations arises.
- Noon Stomaches are growling.
- 12:30 p.m. The pizza guy arrives with a bewildered look on his face.
- 2:00 p.m. First bathroom break to T&C.
- 2:30 p.m. Finally we return to the room.
- 3:30 p.m. Some of the crew leave to "bring back an extra typewriter" never to return.
- 4:00 p.m. All the pictures are developed by now — we keep the good ones and draw mustaches on the bad.
- 4:30 p.m. The completed page stack is about one inch tall.
- 4:59 p.m. The editors suddenly realize that the color pictures needed for the deadline are still at Photo Time which closes at five. (Burners out of the parking lot)
- 5:00 p.m. Parents arrive — "Will you be home for dinner?" (Stupid question)
- 5:30 p.m. The page pile grows to one and half inches tall.
- 6:00 p.m. A junkfood run to T&C.
- 6:30 p.m. Mr. Kortan retreats to the back room (closet) with sleepingbag under arm.
- 7:00 p.m. The blue carbon stains on our hands and clothese have now become permanent.
- 7:30 p.m. Loud snores echo from the back room.
- 8:00 p.m. A second bathroom break to T&C.
- 9:00 p.m. Yearbook typists finally begin to master the skipping typewriter.
- 9:30 p.m. The completed page stack reaches three and a half inches.
- 10:00 p.m. The first typewriter ribbon runs out of ink.
- 10:30 p.m. "Shine the California theme; just get the deadline done!"
- 11:00 p.m. The first of the punchy jokes evolve.
- Midnight The captions begin to lack creativity.
- 12:30 a.m. They layouts are no longer always aesthetically pleasing.
- 1:00 a.m. The page stack breaks five inches.
- 1:15 a.m. The suggested captions become obscene.
- 1:30 a.m. Seems like only ten more minutes of work left.
- 2:00 a.m. Seems like only ten more minutes of work left.
- 2:30 a.m. A drwosy Mr. Kortan emerges from the back room.
- 3:00 a.m. Seems like only ten more minutes of work left.
- 3:30 a.m. Done! The crew leaves to go home and write their english papers for the rest of the morning
- 8:00 a.m. School?
- 8:10 a.m. The package leaves on the Greyhound bus for Goshen Junction.

P.S. Thanks Mr. Kortan
and crew.
